As a dedicated real estate professional and community servant, I bring a diverse background and entrepreneurial spirit to my work. After graduating from Wyoming High School, I founded successful ventures like Wolber's Lawn Service and Lawn Scapes, demonstrating my drive and business acumen.

In 2003, I earned my real estate license, engaging in property investment and house flipping projects. Alongside my career, I served the community as a Cincinnati Fireman and managed Foley's Irish Pub for over 15 years.

Today, I blend my passion for real estate with my commitment to service as a realtor and property manager. In my spare time, I enjoy crafting, swimming, and motorsports, finding joy in family, community, and continuous growth.
